WELCOME TO BOLDMERE

On behalf Boldmere Futures Partnership and Boldmere Traders Association, a very warm welcome to this year's Boldmere Community Festival. We would firstly like to thank Royal Sutton Coldfield Town Council and our sponsors without whose support the event wouldn't be possible.

This year's Festival and Christmas lights switch on is our biggest one yet featuring an impressive line up of musicians, local groups and performers. Around the high street you will also find over 40 stalls including local artisans, handmade crafts, and novelty gift ideas, perfect for Christmas shopping!

Have a fantastic day and Merry Christmas to you all!

MUSIC + ENTERTAINMENT LINE UP

The Angels Day Nursery Main Stage

2pm - Bishop Vesey Grammar School Band

This hugely talented local school band will kick off the day with a selection of their most festive tunes.

2.45pm - Birmingham Cathedral Choir

Birmingham Cathedral's excellent professional Cathedral Choir of boys, girls and adults joins us to sing festive favourites.

3.30pm - The Tuneless Choir

Sutton Coldfield Tuneless Choir launched in May 2016. They sing purely for the pleasure of it and aim for everyone to feel uplifted!

4.15pm - Sutton Coldfield Community Choir

The choir was founded in 2002 and holds regular concerts to raise money for charities. They join us today to showcase their wonderful sound with a wide ranging Christmas repertoire.

5.00pm - First Request

A fantastic band playing that plays popular hits and classic tracks, consisting of members of The Real Life church based in Sutton Coldfield.

5.30pm - Christmas Light Switch On

Alan Gardner, Channel 4's Autistic Gardener, carries out the official switch on of Boldmere's Christmas lights

5.35pm - Pantomime

From The Top Theatre Company and Highbury Theatre present a preview of Aladdin, one of the most magical pantomimes, playing this winter at Highbury Theatre

5.50pm - Ire-Ish

Four sort of Irish lads from Birmingham, playing Irish folk, rebel songs and other songs that make you tap your foot! Best known for "Fairytale of New Street"

6.30pm - Rosie O'Sullivan

Born and bred in Birmingham, the singer songwriter Rosie O'Sullivan has been singing for the last 10 years of her life. In 2013, she made it to the semi-finals of Britain's Got Talent.

"We are pleased to support Boldmere Futures Partnership with a grant of £7850 for the Christmas festival in addition to significant investment in the festive lights, the switch on and a special deep clean of the street in preparation for the event. The Festival is set to benefit and celebrate the best of the local community and our Royal Town and we wish the organisers all the best for a successful event."
